

Townsend Club News

Last night's dance and birthday observance enjoyed by Torrance Townsend Club members and guests in Torrance Woman's Clubhouse was an outstanding success. Due to a conflict in dates the Townsend group this week advanced their meeting to Wednesday.

Regular sessions will be resumed on Friday evening of next week.

Card Party

Mrs. Regina Allred will serve as hostess chairman for this evening's Catholic card party in Nativity hall, Cota at Manuel avenues. Everyone is invited. Tables may be procured at the door.

Assisting Mrs. Allred with party arrangements are Misses Stevens, Putman, MacDonald, Babbitt, Flynn, Johnson, Dunmyer, Pennington, Martin, Neff, Webb, Rushfeldt, Lisoni, Metola, and Nagel.

First door prize will be presented at 8 o'clock and games of contract and auction bridge, pinochle and 500 will follow immediately. Refreshments will be served at the close of play.

P. V. COLLEGE STUDENTS PLAN EUROPEAN TOUR

Eleven of the members of the group which is sailing for Europe under the auspices of Palos Verdes College this summer, met Wednesday night at the college for dinner and discussion of their plans.

The students, who will study the art of Western Europe for college credit, will travel under the guidance of Mr. William Wheaton, assistant to the president at Palos Verdes.

Mr. Arthur Adair of the college art department faculty also will be a member of the party, and will teach the art history course.

CHORUS FESTIVAL TO BE PRESENTED

Final major program in the Los Angeles Bureau of Music's observance of Music Month is now in preparation, with 15 male choirs rehearsing for the fourth annual male chorus festival, which will be held tomorrow evening, at 8:15 in Shrine Auditorium.

More than 500 singers will take part in the event, which will be open to the public without charge. The choral groups,

Tea Welcomes Doctor Home

Mrs. O. G. Thorpe and Mrs. and Mrs. L. A. Ross were among those from Lomita who attended a tea given at the home of Dr. Primitiva Demandante at her Gulf avenue home in Wilmington Sunday at a welcoming session following her arrival home by air Saturday from the Philippines.

Dr. Demandante is a native of the Philippines but received her education in this country. Guests at the tea were interested in hearing of the accounts of the fatal shooting of Mrs. Quizon, wife of the first president of the Philippines, and Dr. Demandante's own escape from the same fate.

COLLEGE SENIORS ARE ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Wheaton of Palos Verdes College entertained at a waffle breakfast recently in honor of graduating seniors of the College.

Those present at the party, which was held in the beautiful garden and patio of the Wheaton residence were: John McAuliffe, Cassie Marie DuClos, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keefe, Susan Walker, Burton Bragg, Adrienne Hatch, Pat Cunningham, Bob Waller, Roger Duell, Bea Caldwell, Mariske Geritz, Miss Eugenie Symms, Mrs. Pemberton, Dr. Richard P. Saunders, President of the College, and the Wheatons.

MARIN PAINTINGS NOW ON VIEW AT EXPOSITION PARK

Art lovers are offered an unusual opportunity to see a large retrospective exhibition of paintings by the American artist, John Marin, now on view at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park. Marin was voted America's No. 1 painter in a recent poll of art critics.

The exhibition opened on the second floor of the Museum on Thursday, May 12, and will continue until June 12. The collection of paintings is valued at approximately $150,000. In the exhibition are 16 oils, 39 water colors and 27 etchings covering the period 1906-1947.

In addition to singing under their own regular conductors, will be heard in three massed-choir selections under the guest-direction of Howard Swan of Occidental College.

SIMPLE, DELICIOUS SPRINGTIME MENU

A FINE spring day is a wonderful thing. But what good does it do you if you can't get out in the sunshine, feel the soft breeze blowing, and touch the new-grown grass with your own hands?

One way to get an extra hour of afternoon in the spring sun is to prepare your dinner in the morning, ready to pop in the oven just before meal-time. Here is a simple, delicious menu that is made-to-order for homemakers with spring fever!

Fish 'n' Chips Casserole
Potato Chips
Coffee Walnut Muffin
Fruited Gelatin Dessert Salad

The fish casserole, the carrots and the dessert salad can be quickly prepared right after breakfast. All you need to do, come dinner time, is to heat the oven to 375° F., bake the casserole dish and the carrots, and while they are in the oven, quickly mix the batter for the coffee walnut muffin loaf. After that has been done, make a big potful of fragrant, steaming coffee, and there you are—an easy-to-do dinner that your family is sure to like.

The dessert salad may be served with the main course or later, as a separate dessert course. In any case, be sure to make enough coffee to provide for that leisurely second cup—the perfect ending for a happy meal.

Fish 'n' Chips Casserole
 1 can condensed 1 7-oz. can tuna
 cream of celery 1 2-oz. bag
 soup potato, chips
 1 1/2-cup light cream
 1 2-oz. can sliced mushrooms

Combine soup, cream and mushrooms (including liquor in can). Drain tuna. Crush potato chips into crumbs. Arrange layers of crumbs, tuna and soup mixture in small casserole, beginning and ending with crumbs. Bake in moderate oven, 375° F., 1/2 hour. Yield 4 servings.

Baked Carrots:
 Scrape small carrots; leave whole. Place in baking dish. Add 1/2 cup water. Dot with butter or margarine; sprinkle with sugar. Cover; bake in moderate oven, 375° F., 45 minutes or until tender. Sprinkle with chopped fresh mint.

Coffee Walnut Muffin Loaf
 Add 1/2 cup chopped walnuts to 1 package muffin mix. Instead of the liquid called for, add double-strength coffee and evaporated milk combined in equal proportions. Pour into greased pie pan. Bake in moderate oven, 375° F., about 20 minutes or until done. Cut in small wedges to serve.

Fruited Gelatin Dessert Salad
 1 pkg. cherry 1 cup halved, seeded grapes
 flavored gelatin 1 banana, sliced
 2 cups water 1/2 cream cheese

Dissolve gelatin in water as directed on package. Pour a thin layer into mold. Chill until set. Form cream cheese into small balls; place in mold on set gelatin. Chill remaining gelatin until syrupy; fold in fruit. Spoon carefully into mold over cheese balls. Chill until set. Unmold on water cross. Serve with cream mayonnaise (half mayonnaise, half whipped cream). Yield 4 servings.
